Terms and Conditions :

The CA Program Service Offering to the Pacific creative arts sector will be :

1. to provide the venue,
2. engage as the event manager,
3. act as the Australian facilitator,
4. provide exhibition and framing support.
5. PT&I will actively promote the event, guided by and in consultation with Trish Nicols Agency.

The participating artists will undertake the responsibility to :

1. provide art work, information, bio and product photographs,
2. undertake the freight and insurance costs of delivering their work to PT&I (while in transit from place of origin to Australia and return). Ownership of the product will not be deemed to have transferred until the product is paid for by a purchaser
3. fund their attendance for a minimum of one week during the event. Attendance costs include funding their travel to and from place of origin, arrange their Australian Entry Visa, and pay for accommodation and daily expenses.

It is expected that the event will deliver :

To the PIC creators

- sales,
- insight into Australian consumer purchasing habits,
- direct feedback from the consumer market
- Opportunity to engage with potential importers, designers and other commercial opportunities.

to CA Program

- baseline information on the Australian consumer market interest in FIC products
- export knowledge and business skills of the PIC creative arts sector
- feedback from the participants on the suitability of this type of event
- database of interested/potential individuals for other CA organised events

I have read, understood and agree to the above terms and conditions as indicated. I understand that by signing this document, I am contractually bound to the terms and conditions.
